Chapter 1 by Glitch

I open my eyes for the first time in eons, which it kinda was. It all feels like a bad dream. All the fire, all the screams, all the blood, worst of all the fear. But i know is not a dream. I know the all who died, all who were killed by... NO I shall not speak that name. No one should.

I look around me, bubbles float up. I bobbed up a little then sank back down, my purple hair flowers in my face. I was confused then I remembered, I was underwater, tied to a rock. With chains and binding spells. The murky sea water covers my vision. But not before I can see the sea monster that guards my 'cage'. Long sharp teeth, red eyes that could see though your soul, and razor sharp midnight black scales.

This was my sentence for a crime that I didn't commit. That crime, the one that shall not be said. I wiggle around some more the chains broke. My sentence is over. I felt like a feather, after being tied to a rock for so long. I gradually made my way to the surface.
